A HISTORY OF NEW ZEALANDERS AND THE SPORTS THAT WE HAVE MADE OUR OWN FROM THE

Māori world to today's professional athletes those two mighty products of the land the Canterbury Lamb and the All Blacks have made New Zealand what she is in spite of politicians' claims to the contrary wrote Dick Brittenden in 1954 for many in New Zealand prowess at sport replaces the social graces in the pubs during the furious session between 5pm and closing time an hour later the friend of a relative of a horse trainer is a veritable patriarch no matador in Madrid no tenor in Turin could be sure of such flattering attention why did rugby become much more important than soccer in New Zealand what role have Māori played in our sporting life do we really punch above our weight in international sport does sport still define our national identity viewing New Zealand sport as activity and as imagination sport and the New Zealanders is a major history of a central strand of New Zealand life
