holidaying in new zealand and adventure activities like bungee jumping canyon swinging and jetboating up wild rivers are virtually synonymous but there are other adventures that this country one of the most isolated in the world offers finding them may not be that easy nor is getting there and back in one piece lee traynor has therefore explored the two main southern islands of new zealand the south island te wai pounamu and stewart island and undertaken a number of shorter and longer hikes tramps among these are the great walks of the abel tasman coastal track the kepler track and the milford track these three tracks each with its own distinct personality are set in spectacular landscapes found only in new zealand the utmost technical challenge is however the ten day north west circuit of stewart island which includes parts of the rakiura track another great walk a trek through temperate rainforests all but impassable muddy tracks and across extensive coastal sand dunes reminiscent of the south eastern coast of australia lee traynor recounts the preparations and the two months spent in new zealand travelling around these southern islands and his adventures on and off the track lavishly illustrated with over 175 colour photographs and maps and 20 black and white photos and diagrams travelling the world from your armchair travel journal recording the experiences of travelling the world in your fifties this book has been written in response to a demand for information based on our personal experience of travelling the world in our fifties it is not a book about staying in good hotels in pleasant places using trouble free transport but rather about doing what many of us as fifty or sixty somethings wished we could have done in our twenties this is then how jasmins in cowpads differs from the normal travel guide in a series of brief but colourful snapshots it offers a first hand account of a journey around india and nepal from thailand down through malaysia and singapore up the east coast of australia new zealand fiji and mexico returning via the us with thought provoking reflections and humorous observations it invokes the sights sounds and smells of our sometimes amazing sometimes appalling experiences en route and then provides a page of factual information on how to do it yourself
