the sparkling debut from an exciting new voice in australian fiction claire aman bird country is a collection of spare and affecting portraits of ordinary people in rural australia a boat trip in a squall to scatter the ashes of an old man who was not loved a young father driving his daughters home across grass plains unable to tell them that their mother has died a speech that doesn t include the aching pain of trying to save a cousin s life a mother hiding her fugitive son in a cockatoo cage as the river rises a man pouring his life into finding the perfect stained glass after his wife has left him a woman longing for the right person to tell about her sister s death while she works nightshift at a roadhouse these are moving and evocative stories about love and loss and yearning and the things we don t say claire aman is a strong new voice in australian fiction claire aman grew up in melbourne but has lived most of her life in rural australia in and around grafton in new south wales her short stories have been published in a number of collections and several have won prizes including the wet ink cal prize and the hal porter prize a suite of quietly beautiful short stories based in and around grafton a loving snapshot of a naturally beautiful but slightly melancholy rural centre they are stories of fierce family loyalties old age poverty and small dignities the kind that country towns seem to embody books publishing aman s tales are burnished with a quiet intensity while there s a precision to the placing of each word that speaks of a controlling rigour the actual content of these 16 stories reveals a certain freewheeling dramatic flair here is grief and beauty in symphony australian aman s ideas are original and her imagination fertile aman is capable of some showstopper phrases such as the naked and mortified brightness of the dead possum s eyes in sustenance and she has a nice line in dry humour peopled with memorable and often touching characters and redolent of australia bird country is a thoroughly enjoyable and varied reading experience and aman is a writer to watch nz listener a variety of birds both free and caged illustrate the human condition i enjoyed the variety of emotions and the rich imagery in aman s anthology good reading four stars it is rare these days that a complete collection of short stories can sustain a sense of breathless wonder throughout each and every piece included in its pages but in the australian short story scene exciting things are happening and i believe claire aman s debut collection bird country is one of them this is a collection that will bear reading and rereading and rereading again in the years to come au review the 16 stories capture snapshots of poignant experiences and moments in time that are rich in emotion and thought provoking inspired by motorcyclists sailors uninvited guests bridge jumpers and bird fanciers aman tells her stories in descriptive prose and paints images that remain with you long after you have turned the final page weekly times a suite of fresh and beautiful short stories from the broken families and clapped out pubs and river towns of rural australia helen garner sydney morning herald s year in reading claire aman s warm and tough debut collection bird country carries such technical command that aman is already an established hand at the form saturday paper best books of 2017 best new talent

why do some friendships last a lifetime while others fade away how do you break up with a friend how many best friends should we be aiming for from the time we start school we are fed a diet of best friends forever the idea that you should have a female soulmate to whom you tell all your secrets and who always has your back it s the stuff of hollywood films but for most of us it isn t achievable we spend years striving for a vision of female friendship that isn t realistic instead of searching for what suits us best or appreciating what we ve already got bff is an agenda setting personal and humorous book that pulls back the cover on the most underappreciated relationships in our lives to interrogate what modern friendship means why we need it and what we can do to get the most from it featuring interviews with brilliant women including emma barnett pandora sykes nimco ali and jilly cooper as well as the intimate friendship stories of women from all walks of life claire cohen argues that unlike romance friendship is much harder to pin down and and it shows how often our friendships are taken for granted an antidote to the idea that every woman must belong to a perfect girl gang this book is a warm and reassuring guide to help women deepen their female friendships in ways that are meaningful and enduring it took me until my thirties to feel truly secure in my friendships my female ones in particular i truly believe that if i d had a book like this when i was younger it would have fallen into place sooner that i d have been happier more trusting and able to deal with any bumps in the road that s why i want us all to start telling the truth about female friendship because if i raised in a house full of women the product of two all girls schools and the women s editor of a national newspaper found it hard to trust open up and had convinced myself that female friends weren t for me then you might not have it worked out either
